CONDITION OF THE MARKETS

Speculative Wheat Opens Higher, but Loses Nearly All the Advance.

Spot and May Close Lower-Corn Steadily Declines After the First-Oats Lower-Pork Dull and Weaker.

MONEY, STOCKS AND BONDS. Large Volume of Business and a Gain in Price on Nearly All Shares. NEW YORK, May 17.-Money on call was easy, with no loans, the closing being offered at 3 per cent. Prime mercantile paper 5@7 per cent. Sterling exchange quiet and steady at $4.84 for sixty-day bills and $4.86 for demand.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 305,-186 shares, including the following: Atchison, 18,260; Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, 7.807: Louisville & Nashville, 3,900; Missouri Pacific, 3,613; Northern Pacific, 12,845; Northern Pacific, preferred, 9,840; Oregon Transcontinental, 32,640; Reading, 73,820; Richmond & West Point, 8,335; St. Paul, 6,700; Union Pacific, 5,810.

The stock market, even although to-day was a half holiday, managed to maintain the large volume of business of the past week, and while the movements of prices were somewhat irregular there was a strong undertone, which, before the close, swept everything before it, and further advances resulted, while many stocks reached their highest prices for the week. The foundation of the "bull" movement, the railroad earnings, continue to show the | firm; winter, $5.40@5.90 for patents; $4,25 year. The "bulls" also continue to fight shy of the stocks of the warring roads that are cutting rates in the West. The market to-day was unusually plentifully supplied with rumors for a short session, and among them may be noted a story that a deal favorable to the Villard stocks is to be consummated next week, which served as the basis for a most marked advance in Northern Pacific and Oregon Transcontinental, which became the features of the market after 11 o'clock. Reading was the most active stock, its transactions exceeding those of any full day of the week, on rumors relating to a merger or agreement with other powerful companies, and there was a material gain made in its price. The market started off with slight advances, but there was some selling off in Reading and the grangers, apparently for foreign account, and Chicago Gas and Sugar were weak and retarded the further improvement until the strength in Reading had been fully developed. The Villards afterward joined in the upward movement, and later the advancing tendency extended to all portions of the list, and even trusts felt the stimulus. The bank statement, which had promised to be unfavorable, showed a small increase in the surplus reserve, and helped to give the market a buoyant tone toward the close, which was active and strong in most cases at the best prices of the day. The final changes are generally small advances, the declines being few in number, while Northern Pacific preferred is up 214; Oregon Transcontinental, 2; Northern Pa-cific common, 178; Reading, 138, and Mexican Central, 1 per cent.

The transactions in railroad bonds were also large and fully up to the average of the week, aggregating $1,574,000, of which Reading fours contributed $302,000, and the incomes, $170,000; Atlantic and Pacific incomes, $180,000, and the Atchison incomes, $107,000. The market was firm, with few marked changes in quotations. Ohio Southern firsts rose 234, to 11134. The sales of bonds for the week aggregated $16,518,-000. Government bonds were duil and steady. State bonds were neglected. Clos-was lee higher than yesterday. May closed lee lower than yesterday and June unchanged. The dry weather scare again changed. The dry weather scare again had its influence on the market and caused an excited opening, but advices later in the session reported rains and snow in the Northwest, and had the effect of creating a weaker feeling. Snow was reported in Cass. Ransom and Barnes counties, Dokota, which, it is claimed, makes the Northwest all right for the present. Corn was fairly active, and a little unsettled early but became more quiet and easy early, but became more quiet and easy later. Operations I were mainly local, as, also, were the influences that affected values. The marker opened higher and irregular with wheat and the cold weather, but later sold off under free offerings. The market opened wheat and the cold weather, but later sold off under free offerings. The market opened \(^{1}8\omega^{3}8c\) better than the closing yesterday, but soon sold off \(^{1}2\omega^{7}8c\), ruled steady and closed \(^{1}4\omega^{3}8c\) lower than yesterday. A good volume of business transpired in oats. The opening was firmer and \(^{1}8\omega^{3}8c\) higher. The strength proved only temporary and prices soon started downward. Prices for May receded \(^{1}8c\), and for June and July \(^{1}\omega^{1}4c\). The more deferred futures, although higher at the start symma-1@14c. The more deferred futures, although higher at the start, sympathized with the rest of the market, but only declined 3sc. The market closed steady at almost inside figures. A weak feeling prevailed in pork, and prices early declined 40@45c, with a few scattering sales. Later the market ruled steadier and rallied 15@20c and closed quiet. Trading in lard was light and the feeling easy. Prices ruled .0212@.05c lower, and the market closed easy at inside figures. A light business was reported in short ribs and easier feeling prevailed. Prices ruled .0212@.05c lower, and the market closed tame. The leading

INDIANAPOLIS MARKETS.

The Trade of the Week Not Very Satisfac-

INDIANAPOLIS, May 17. Trade in all departments in the week closing today was spasmodic in its character, a brisk day's trade being followed by a dull one. Warmer weather is doubtless the stimulant needed. Prices have ruled steady on most lines. In dry-goods everything carries a firm tone. In groceries, coffees are the only staple article which shows any real weakness. Canned goods and dried fruits, which are usually dull and sell low in May, are firm in tone and meeting with remarkably good sale for so late in the season. The hide market is weaker in tone here, while reports from the East show a firmer tone. East show a firmer tone. An advancing leather market is indicated; the position of all grades of leather is strong, and East, slight advances have already been estab-lished. The hardware and iron markets are active, with firm prices ruling. The produce markets are active. Poultry and eggs in good request at prices quoted; re-ccipts light, which indicates a continued firm market. Cabbages are still in light supply and prices exorbitant. Other vege-tables in fair supply and prices easy, es-pecially for green stuff. Oranges are in good request; receipts are falling off and prices tend higher. Lemons arriving more freely and in better request at unchanged prices.

The week closes with a strong market on all cereals. Receipts are falling below the demand. Track bids to-day ruled as foldemand. Track bids to-day ruled as lol-lows:

Timothy or herds grass is the most common grass of continental Europe, growing wild throughout all that vast region between the Mediterranean sea on the south and the North sea in the direction the name implies. It is not known exactly when it was first introduced into the United States, but this much is known: It takes its name from Timothy Hanson, a farmer of Maryland, who brought it into general notice as a hay grass, after he had cultivated it extensively for his own use for years. The botanical name for the grass is phieum pratense. It is a curious fact that although its native home is Europe, the United States is the first country in which it was grown, cut and cured for hay. Not longer ago than 1785 some timothy heads and seeds were taken to England and exhibited as curiosities.

The plum is being cultivated by the hundred acres in New York State, and is one of the most nutritious of fruits. The plum wart is what plums have to contend with. Kerosene oil is a remedy. The curculio is another enemy; Paris green is used for the pest. The green gage is the best plum; the Bradshaw is another good one.

DAILY, SUNDAY and WEEKLY

The Most Complete Newspaper in all Departments in the State of Indiana.

No newspaper in the West is more widely or more favorably known than the Indianapolis Journal. By the display of enterprise and strict attention to the wants of the reading public, during the great campaign of 1888, it has taken a leading position among the most prominent journals of the country, and is certainly among the best. Among the newspapers of the State it is pre-eminently the best, and Indiana readers can nowhere else find what they want in the way of State and local news. It circulates largely in every county in Indiana, and has correspondents in every town and village of importance. Its market reports are prepared with the greatest care possible, and no pains or expense are spared to make them accurate and absolutely reliable. It is the only newspaper in the State owning and publishing all the news furnished by the two great press associations (the Western Associated Press and the United Press), in addition to which it furnishes an abundance of special service from all the principal cities of the country. It has been, and will in future be, the aim of the publishers to make the Indianap-OLIS JOURNAL a perfect and complete newspaper, deficient in no department or particular. The paper challenges comparison with any of its contempo-

No Indiana reader, certainly no Indiana Republican, should be without the Journal. While it is thoroughly and soundly Republican in politics, devoted to the interests of the Republican party, the Journal will not allow its news to be colored by partisan bias, but will give the news of the day without fear or

Owing to the prominence of Indiana in the national administration, the Journal gives particular attention to Washington news, which will be given far more completely than ever before. For this reason, if for no other, no Indiana reader can afford to be without it for the next four years.

In addition to its new features, the Journal regales its readers with the productions of some of the best known literary men and women of the day. Many of the most celebrated magazine writers and authors are contributors to its literary columns, making it a paper for the household and home circle. Special arrangements have been made for features of this character, which will appear in the Journal during the coming year. These appear most largely in the SUNDAY JOURNAL, which is a special edition, and can be subscribed for and received exclusive of the DAILY JOURNAL.
